From Father Costa

This weekend I share with you a letter I received from Holy Union Sisters:

Dear Fr. David,

On behalf of the Holy Union Sisters, I am writing once again to thank you, your staff, parishioners, and the children and staff of Saint Mary-Sacred Heart School for the outstanding generosity that you have shown to the Holy Union mission in Haiti. The combined gifts of $40,063.00 from the three parishes and the school is once again a testament of your belief in the possibility that the lives of those made poor by unjust economic systems can be helped by the united efforts of individuals who wish to make our world a better place for all.

I am sure that you will personally be hearing from Sister Eileen and the Holy Union Sisters in Haiti, with their own expressions of gratitude. May the God who inspires the generosity witnessed here, continue to bless all of your lives with abundant goodness and continue to open each of you to the need for healing and compassion in our world.

Sincerely,

Sister Patricia Butler, SNDdeN
Holy Union Sisters - United States Province
